

Judge Catherine Bergman

Catherine Bergmann is Curatorial Director of the Dunedin Fine Art Center where she has curated over 300 exhibitions in the past 13 years. Hired in 2000, she served as Adult Education Director in addition to Curator during two major expansions. She is also an award-winning artist whose works were featured in the first UnderCURRENT/OverVIEW at Tampa Museum of Art as well as the Ft. Lauderdale Museum of Art, the Orlando Museum of Art, Deland Museum of Art, Museum of Fine Arts in St Petersburg, the Brevard Museum of Art, and the Leepa-Rattner Museum in Tarpon Springs. In 2017, her work was included in 100 Artists/100 Years at the Morean. Her art can be seen in numerous private collections and in the permanent collections of the Polk Museum of Art, Valencia Community College, and Pensacola Community College. Today her work is primarily in sculpture and assemblage. She holds a BFA in Painting and Printmaking from Florida State University.

