Vero Beach Art Club Scholarship CONFIDENTIAL APPLICATION FOR 2017 SCHOLARSHIP AWARD RULES AND RESTRICTIONS

- Applications must be submitted between 12:30 - 4:00 pm on March 3rd, 2017 to the Artist Guild Gallery in Historic Downtown Vero Beach and picked up 1:00 - 4:00 PM on March 4th.
- Dropping off and picking up work within timelines are a professional requirement. If you are unable to follow those guidelines, it may reflect on the decision process.
- Funds awarded must be used at an accredited art school, college or university up to one year following award date to the school designated on your application.
- You must be following an art related course of study.
- All awards will go directly to the school designated on your application. Scholarships may only be used for tuition or books and must be payable to the school alone. No checks will be issued to the student for outside supplies such as computers, cameras or other items needed for other necessities.
- You must be a graduating senior from an Indian River County high school or accredited home school.
- All artwork submitted must be fully the work of the applicant.
- Three pieces of your work must be submitted and delivered directly to the drop off.
- Each application must be accompanied by a letter of reference by an art teacher or school official.
- No submissions may be left at the Artist Guild Gallery or in the Art Club office early or after pick up times. If you cannot be there to drop off your work or pick it up on the designated day and time, it is your responsibility to find a family member or friend to do this for you. The Vero Beach Art Club is not allowed to store any artwork.
- By applying for this scholarship, you agree that photos of your work may be allowed to be used in publicity for the Vero Beach Art Club about the scholarship program and that your name may be used in a news release solely for scholarship announcements related to the Vero Beach Art Club's Scholarship program.
